Overpass help sought of L and N by Jaycees

A letter to William H. Barber, divisional engineer, Louisville and Nashville Railroad, Mobile, from Bay St. Louis Jaycees, has again raised the question of the possibilities of an underpass or overpass at the present Bookter Street crossing site.

"Since the L and N railroad bisects the city, it is a hazard when long trains pass through the city blocking all crossings for extended periods. In times of emergencies this is a serious threat to the welfare of our citizens. We believe this project could save lives," the letter, signed by Michael DeHaas, project chairman, states.

Reminding Barber he had indicated interest when the subject was broached earlier in the year, the Jaycees say federal funds may be available under the Road Act and that the Dept. of Commerce state the normal federal state matching is done on a 50-50 basis. The state could use up to 10 per cent of its federal aid funds provided there was an elimination of railway-highway crossing hazards on a federal-aid route, they were told.

"It developed the only federal aid secondary route in Bay St. Louis is Washington Street, and all programs must be initiated through the state highway dept," the letter says.

However, upon approaching this state agency the Jaycees

The city sales tax is one per cent, so the actual increase in sales volume for the 12 months ending July 1, 1966, is $993,031 over the same period ending last year.

Proof of the validity of these figures is on file at the City Hall, Glover said, and may be inspected by anyone interested.

ing itself, if approved by the member is to be a part of a new motel and office complex.

Commissioners pointed out their objectives lay in Mulatto Bayou to the west and the new airport to the north. They doubted suitable accommodations could be obtained away from either of these two sites. The matter was taken under advisement for committee study at some future date.

Michael Haas, one of the board's two attorneys, reporting on land acquisition progress, said C.W. Ford, IP's attorney from Pascagoula, was to review timber cutting details called for in the purchase agreement. In addition, Haas said, IP's interest in mineral retention is limited to hydrocarbon minerals. These include oil and gas.

Edgington said crews were working on Second Street yesterday, testing and sterilizing pipes preparatory to tying in the second loop of the water system on the east side of town.

Work on the oxidation pond is progressing well and all earth work is expected to be completed within two weeks, Edgington reported. He said construction work to be done on one half of the pond while the other half is in service for test lines to the new Bay High School building and St. Stanislaus. Only work remaining after completion of earth work to be grading levees, fencing and completion of outfall.

Bay Scouts to take part in 1st Kana dedication

Bay St. Louis Girl Scouts will play leading roles in the formal dedication of Camp 1st Kana Sunday afternoon at the camp site on State Rt. 13, just west of U.S. 49, near Wiggins.

Mrs. C.C. McDonald, member of the Region 5 committee of which Bay-Waveland is a part, is in charge of the dedication ceremony. Gov. Paul B. Johnson will deliver the principal address at festivities beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Mary Lagarde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lagarde of St. Charles Street, local delegate to the Girl Scout Round-up in Idaho last year, will represent senior Girl Scout troops of the Gulf Pines Council in the dedication service.

Others from here taking part will be Pat Guffy, member of Troop 197 and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Guffy of Waveland; Susan Clark of Troop 1, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J.W. Clark of Commerce Blvd. and Wendy McDonald of Troop 363, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.C. McDonald, Jr., of Pelletier Street. This trio will help usher.

Accompanying the local girls will be Mrs. W.E. Wabely, leader of Troop 363, who recently moved here after taking an active part of scouting in other parts of the nation.

GE test support staff at MTF awarded new wage packet

General Electric employees at Mississippi Test Facility, Test Support Dept., have begun to share in a three-year wage and benefit improvement package, Bill Eaton, general manager, announced Tuesday.

Eaton said all 1,550 local GE personnel will be covered by some 15 improvements in the program. These include pension and holiday gains and innovations and extensions in the area of medical and hospitalization benefits.

In addition, about half will receive three annual pay increases and two cost-of-living adjustments. "Over the next three years these increases will range from $8.40 to $22 for a usual 40-hour week," Eaton said.

A four percent increase and a higher shift one cent to ten cents per hour upward adjustment became effective Sept. 12. Two further pay boosts are planned. One, of three percent, on Oct. 2, 1967 and another on Sept. 30, 1968.

Changes in the savings and security program, where the company matches employee donation 50-50 toward purchase of GE stock and US Savings Bonds, will permit eligible people to save more and invest their savings in new ways.

Other major benefits include an extra paid holiday, effective 1969 and faster build-up of lay-off protection credits after their use and a new credit for job retraining tuition.

Applicants must be 18 years of age or older and have completed the 10th grade or made an equivalent score on the General Education Test.

A Mississippi Employment Service representative will be on hand Friday to administer the ACE and MES tests.

We rarely deal from another calendar as the drinking the brain weekly to a waiting operation, to say the least, and one doesn't feel too kindly toward politicians, however, to truly Don McKee, who does 'Curtis' Up in the Vialito Lander came up with some items to timely and locally applicable, to which the curb the urge.

He begins with the rather startling statistic that a researcher has found that the higher a person's intelligence, the more children they have. His comment: "You'd think that brains would make them smarter than that." And we heartily concur! The figures show that people with superior IQ's, 120 and up, averaged two point six children and those below 90, only one point five offspring. We plan to do further study along these lines in the first place, the only people we know with point six or point five of a family are the pregnant ones, and a good many acquaintances in this less than delicate condition have valuedly noted that they wished they'd been a bit more brilliant some months ago!

And for the future

We can only hope that someone comes up with a slightly different conclusion for this already prolific community. The very thought of everyone trying to prove their genius by producing on a mass scale sends chills up and down the old spine!

Had also a mention of the fact that September is Bourbon Month. As we thought that every month was and 'Home Sweet Home Month' just as Lessons in Truth Week ends, the columnist points out, we're smack dab in the middle of National Planned Parenthood Week and to serve as anti-climax, Sunday was 'Papa's Day'.

Picture snapping papa

Speaking of fathers, Mike Haas is the only brand new papa who has everything on film but the actual delivery of his fourth child and second daughter, born Thursday at Hancock General. He photographed 'Auntie' as she was wheeled into the delivery room, and was waiting, flash in hand, when she and the wee one were wheeled out into the hall!

Tony Monti was passing out the traditional cigars Friday after wife, Mariel, presented him with their second daughter, Amy Elizabeth, born at 2 a.m. that day at Gulfport Memorial Hospital weighing just a shade over seven pounds.

Wedding scoop

Marcella Bradley pulled a fast one on all of her pals when she and suitor of the past several years, Willie Daniels, eloped last week. They took a leisurely honeymoon through Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi and are now at home on Jeff Davis Avenue. Marcella says she still hasn't decided whether or not to let Willie legally adopt her canine daughter, Cleo.

Paula (Mrs. S.C., Jr.) Blaize flew out to her old stomping grounds—California, for a visit with her daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren. She's sort of expecting a big 'surprise' in the form of a brand new automobile when she returns to her Voliere Drive home.

Around town

Orna May and Connie Herlihy are all but completely moved in to their new home on the same street.

Annual tidings

Bert Steffel is due a happy birthday wish having celebrated Friday, Sept. 16, Herbie, his oldest son, observed his on Tuesday, Sept. 20, but in a somewhat more subdued fashion than usual, as his arm is in a cast due to a fracture suffered in a school yard fall.

Ruth Goelzenleuchter is home again after an absence of three months. Ruth was in Seattle, Wash., taking care of her three beautiful granddaughters while daughter, Margie Lartin, was in the throes of hip surgery.

Necaise-Lader vows exchanged at Lizana

The marriage of Miss Carol Lader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lader of Lizana, to Charles Necaise, son of Mrs. Florio Necaise of Rt. 1, Poca Christian and the late Mr. Necaise, took place at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10, at St. Ann's Catholic Church at Lizana.

Rev. Gregory Johnson performed the double ring ceremony. Altar boys were Roger Lader, brother of the bride, and Martin Moran, Mrs. R. M. Lader was organist and Miss Carolyn Curvas sang. Best man was William Necaise of Rt. 1, Poca Christian and the late Mr. Necaise, took place at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10, at St. Ann's Catholic Church at Lizana.

Help

And we have a couple of pleas this week. Bill Johnston, Parks and Playground director, asks we urge parents of all growing boys to search closets and drawers in search of football uniforms, pads, shoes, helmets, and the like, as he's desperately in need of such paraphernalia to get his first Little League Football teams organized.

The second... Please, will the owner of the moving black Bascari, with a couple of tan and white spots on its chest and face, try to keep him under closer surveillance. This is for his own good as he's such a pretty little animal. Norma and John Douglas own a lovely aridale who never, ever, leaves their yard, but being of an instinctive fighting breed, will attack any dog trespassing upon his premises. Norma has intervened just in time to prevent him from devouring the Bascari on several occasions, but fears slaughter if the vicious dog wanders in when she isn't home.

Welcome home

Dorothy and A. J. (Bud) Thomas and son, Mark, have returned to the Bay permanently and are making their home at 211 Main Street, after living in Denver for the past ten years. Dorothy was a Holmstrom prior to her marriage. Nine year old Mark possesses a most unusual pet which he picked up on a visit to the Bay four years ago. It is, as far as anyone knows, the only bob-tailed squirrel in captivity and answers to the name Mick, and is as docile as a lamb, and is so domesticated as to eat out of a bowl.

Notice to Mr. L.P. Gauthier... we've just found anyone who will admit having the bit of news you submitted during our vacation... to remember to use my free commercial service at Waveland Drug store.

Dedicated act

We received an emergency phone call from Bob (Mr. Lawrence) Souder, Sunday, when she became aware that their small female Chihuahua and Terrier, Tride, would be unable to deliver her first litter without professional assistance. She had phoned Dr. Bob Adams, but he, attempting to enjoy his day of rest, was not home. We suggested she try Pat (Mrs. Joe) Viguerie's home and the doctor was located within a matter of seconds. He performed a successful cesarean resulting in two healthy pups, a male and a female, and the mother seemed fine, but after two more operations with the doctor who administered oxygen, nitro, etc., passed away Sunday night. While the Souder were in his supposedly "closed for the day" clinic, he performed two other operations and handled a cecident victim. . . and would that any one so dedicated to his profession in this an open note of thanks.

From our notes

Nick Yorkborough is now driving his friends around in a sharp looking new biplane and maroon automobile.

Edna and Al Klingman have moved in their new (to them) home at 920 Beach Blvd. The Andrew Bessons were previous owners.

Had a most enjoyable phone chat with "Cousin" Harriet Ryan when she was the guest of "Cousin" Holland (Mrs. Tom) Garner. Just in recent weeks, quite by accident Holland discovered that we had originally from Franklin, Tenn. and she and Harriet have been lifelong friends of cousins of ours and, upon further discussion, discovered that we are also distantly related. A cousin of Harriet from Mother is clearly explaining who Uncle William and Aunt Theresa married, etc. etc. at some date, we hope to get the whole matter straightened out. Harriet now makes her home in Buffalo, New York. . . where my father had relatives, but we don't plan to go there.

Lillian Grace passed on the news that one-in-law, Ed Henry has been transferred to Lafayette, La. by Humble Oil Company and of course will, Dickson, and daughter, Corry, accompanied him.

Sam Abbott, Jr., is also at home on leave from the U.S. Army.

Jack Ray gave a very special get well wish (and to doc Joe Buccola. . .) their mutual Monday afternoon, while not normally, was to pay the least, devotedly and patiently.

Our sympathy

Express sympathy to extended to Carolyn Klein upon the death of her mother, Mrs. Adah Walker, and to Rita Carden, whom we've known for years, and mourning their loss and Cliff Bonifant are closer and their mother had passed away.

Dale Russell has received yet another honor, having been selected as one of the teens to be featured in the January issue of Seventeen magazine. She'll be in such company as Miles Howell, the national junior golfing champ, etc.
Bill Pittcain thoroughly enjoyed his 47-day working cruise aboard the Delta Line's, Del Sud. His ports of call included San Juan, Barbados, Rio, Santos, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Venezuela, Curacao and lastly, Houston, Tex.

243 register at St. Clare's

Two hundred and forty-three children from kindergarten to grade eight are now registered at St. Clare's School in Waveland, according to Sister M. Rush, principal.
Opening in 1954 with an enrollment of 112, the school now operates with a faculty of three Dominican Sisters and six lay teachers. In addition to Sister Rush there are Sister M. Ambrose and Sister M. Martin and Misses, James DeBlanc, Francis Shappay, Joseph Tlemann, Fred Burson, William Bourgeois and Robert Longa-feld.
Two outstanding features of this year's curriculum are the departmentalization of schedule in grades four through eight and the art program in all grades.
Apologies are on the way to Connie Macaluso, who is employed at Le Jolie Fontaine... not her sister Georgia.
Linda Munch has now entered her junior year in the study of medical technology at Loyola.
Ellen Colson is a sophomore at the same university.
Sharon Piazza, who has been a career girl in the Crescent City since graduating from St. Joseph, has now enrolled in Lamar State in Beaumont, Tex.

Bay Tigers roar, Devils flame-out

After an ignominious start this season Bay High's Tigers found themselves and chalked up their second consecutive win Friday night, walloping Pearl River Central's Blue Devils, 40-19, at Carriere in a conference game.

They are now 2-1 for the year and meet Hancock North Central's Hawks on Tiger grid-iron Friday night for their second home game.

After Friday's win, coaches Lance Lumpkin, Luke Caruso and Wilmer Seymour again emphasized it was strictly a team effort and highly praised the line's play in opening holes for the backs.

Little League

to good start

Approximately 100 boys have registered for the Parks and Playgrounds Commission football program, Larry Mathis one of the spark plugs for the new set-up, announced this week.

Mathis said there will be a meeting at 4 p.m. Saturday which is the deadline for registrations. Boys between nine and 13 interested in learning to play football should report to City Hall Park, Uman and Dunbar Avenues, with birth certificates or other proof of age and letters from their parents permitting them to play and relieving the city of responsibility in case of injury.

Boys are asked to bring whatever equipment they might have until other arrangements are made.

Additional coaches and other personnel are still being recruited and anyone with football experience, or others wishing to help, are asked to attend the meeting Saturday.

"Every effort will be made to provide the best instruction possible," Mathis said, adding that parents or others seeking information about the program should also attend the meeting.

Hawks begin

This Friday the Hawks meet the Tigers on Bay High's grid-iron.

North Central scored its lone touchdown in the final quarter when the Hawks sustained a 62-yard drive climaxed by a 10-yard pass from quarterback Lloyd Anderson to end receiver Glen Davis for the extra point.

But you can't overlook a man who coaches these teams down and that's what helped David Necolas add in the first half before the top team was taken out for the second round and then the third.

Necolas coached the game's first touchdown in the first quarter on a 16-yard run, Barry in the second period. Alan Romanoff, who also passed for extra points out of the end zone, went 25 yards for the extra point.

The Tigers scored three more times in the second stanza, Necolas going 60-00 on runs of 20 and seven yards each, and Perry 50-00 on a 10-yarder. In the third, quarterback Don Eargo got off a sensational pass to Mike Ruff who added the final tally, the play being good for 60 yards.

Don Favre turned in an excellent performance, passing a Blue Devil three times and setting up a Tiger tally when he intercepted a pass on the Bay High 40.

Lumpkin sent in his third string in the final quarter and the lads almost scored twice, both times the threat being stopped by pass interceptions.

The Tiger defense held the Blue Devils scoreless in the first half but they got to the substitutes for one touchdown in the third and two in the fourth quarters. Should'a gone fishin'

Football, fish both match up

If you don't blow your own horn nobody else will do it for you. That's the first column we produced one of the best fall seasons ever for fishing and then a second column to fishing out despite desperate efforts of the weathermen to thwart it.

And in our first appearance this year on a public football forecaster we had four out of four, missing one score by the slim margin of one point. We had Southern Miss over Louisiana Tech, 13-0, but they made both extra points and won, 14-0. Ole Miss won by 13 points, we had figured 14; LSU was by 16, our guess was 13; and Mississippi State lost to Georgia by 3 while our guess was 8 — but remember we said our fingers were crossed for State.

Fish still a jumpin'

We haven't had a chance to get out but from all reports fishermen have had it as good as a long time — and in fact, threatening weather, too. That little spot near the mouth of the Jordan, across from the Oblique building where the Seminary pier used to be is producing plenty trout as in the Cutoff and quite further up the Jordan.

They were hitting on lures off both bridges and almost everywhere else you can name, so you better go and get them before the rain polishes the nice nasty water in the Bay.

Near week game warden Pat Toomey promised to give us a list of all the spots in the county where fishermen can launch their boats, if he doesn't get called back to Grenada, that is.

Sorry about this Chief

Now that we've patted ourselves on our proverbial back, we'll take a demerit for not informing you of the opening of the teal duck season which was Saturday, Sept. 17 and will run through Sunday, Sept. 25. We've already slipped into the habit of depending on Pat for these things but really can't expect him to do our job.

In fact, Pat wants us to quit using his name as his friends are ribbing him about being on the Echo payroll but 'taint so, it's just that we know he is in closer touch with game life in the county than most anyone and can be depended upon for accurate info. Remember what the immortal Gov. Bilbo used to tell reporters, Pat — I don't care what you say about me, just spell my name right.

Anyhow, real is a good-eatin' bird and they're here — at least I know they're down around Lakeshore and Clemon Harbor 'cause Pat told me so. (Sorry, Pat, didn't mean to mention your name).

Getting their bag limits Saturday and Sunday were Steve Church, Richard Schoeffter and Mike Williamson of Bay St. Louis and Jack Toomey, Jr., and Orville Ferrell of Waveland. Good hunting, fellas.

And don't call the teal short. It can be just as good and sometime better than the mallard or other of the more popular types, depending on the cook. One sure-fire method is wrapping them in bacon but with the price of bacon today we're not sure whether to recommend it.

Cause of the invasion

We hear that David Mallers caught 64 specs in the Cutoff last weekend.

We also hear that there are showing up and are being caught in great numbers off the cannell. No wonder the trout are moving in. W.T. Blanton, who sells bait — shiners and worms — at his place on the Jordan River, paid us a visit Monday and invited us out to chew the fat and talk over old fishlore. Blanton is 73 and has been fishing steadily since he was three which should make him a authority. He built from Koochistaw, the boat of Attila County and has made his home here for the past three years. He knows some good spots in his neighborhood where one may spend a lazy day fishing off the bank — and bring home some fine trout. To get to his place go up the Kila Road, about a quarter mile off U.S. 90, turn right at the second road and look for his sign.

Blanton also reminded us that boys who spend a lot of their spare time fishing seldom get into trouble.

We're not impressed

Coming back to football, we watched the replay of Ole Miss against Memphis State and weren't very impressed with the Johnny Rhea. Of course, beating Memphis State has become a routine job each year but is this the team that's out to beat Alabama, Tennessee, etc.?

We're inclined to go along with some of the other local noddies — Johnny Wright must have been holding back. And he better be if he is figuring on keeping the Kentucky Wildcats from making it three in a row next Saturday.

Post scripts

It seemed to us that Mississippi State could have beaten Georgia handily but they just weren't ready. Coach Paul Davis said the boys were in a tv interview Monday "we only had 17 days to get ready for the Bulldogs and it wasn't enough." Should they get by Florida this weekend, and they have a good chance, State can be a national contender.

Junior varsity drops opener to Long Beach

VCI faces SMAC champs tonight

Bay High junior varsity team were in an uproar on Game Friday night as they dropped their opener to Long Beach in Tiger Stadium. Bay High junior varsity Coach Woody Allison said the kids were off form and a bit nervous for what was the first high school game in their lives for some of the squad. It was the Bearcats second game of the season.

Long Beach scored in the first quarter on a 10-yard run by Ralph Lohler who also ran for the extra point but Bay High's Donald Cockrell scored on a 60-yard run in the third period. At the half it was 7-6.

Lohler put the game on ice for Long Beach in the third when he passed 30 yards to Dinky McKay.

The junior Tigers are slated to travel to Wiggins tonight, Thursday, for a battle with Stone High juniors.

Benefit tourney slated for Sun. in SSC stadium

Soccer fans will get one more chance to witness an all-day tournament Sunday in St. Stanislaus Stadium.

The occasion is a benefit for Peter Dougherty who is in critical condition at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans. He was injured in an automobile accident at Kila about two weeks ago.

The tourney will feature the area's best soccer teams, both men and women. Play starts at 9 a.m. and food and drink will be on hand.

The sponsors ask that anyone wishing to donate cash, equipment, or anything suitable for refreshment bring them to the food booth in the stadium Sunday morning.

Lucadale held Jones conference in the first quarter but early in the second Jones Petersen went four yards off tackle for first blood. Milton Hargan went off tackle for the extra. Minutes later Petersen sprinted 65 yards on a double reverse for the second score and quarterback Robert Williams passed to end Larry Peters for the extra point.

With these minutes left in the half and the gridiron slippery from a light rain, the Tigers scored again on a 35-yard pass from Williams to left end Robert Jackson. Williams converted on a keeper.
